

Phillip Walesa Director of Engineering

Phillip Walesa is the Director of Engineering for Patriot Taxiway Industries. He is responsible for Research & Development, Engineering and maintaining technical and functional excellence across the engineering group. Walesa is also responsible for program management with government agencies and major original equipment manufacturers (OEMs). He brings over 20 years of product development and project management experience in the Defense and Aerospace industry.

Walesa is a licensed Professional Engineer in Wisconsin, a Certified Project Management Professional and a Design for Six Sigma (DfSS) Blackbelt. He is a member of the Society of Aerospace Engineers (SAE), American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA), and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME).

Walesa earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Aerospace Engineering from the University of Minnesota.